

Facilities

In addition to office space, the Tucson facility includes a small clean room where scatter measurements and large particle depositions are made. John Stover is most easily contacted at the Tucson office by phone or email.

TSW makes use of another facility in California in order to provide small particle depositions (diameters smaller than 2 micrometers) using an AcuDep300. Len Anderson runs this operation and is most easily contacted by phone or email.